A.R.H. FAMILY VINEYARD
2009 SHIRAZ 75% • CABERNET SAUVIGNON 25%
SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Our family company is named after my grandfather, Alan Robb Hickinbotham, who is considered the father of Australian winemaking education. He was one of the founders of the Roseworthy Agricultural College, teaching young up and coming winemakers from 1936-1948 and his family developed vineyards in some of the best grape growing regions of South Australia. The grapes for our ARH Shiraz Cabernet Sauvignon come from two sites in the Riverland, named Lantier Vineyard and Jennings Vineyard after the original Hickinbotham families (on the maternal side) who emigrated to Australia from Great Britain and Ireland.

Our 2009 Shiraz Cabernet Sauvignon has a wide spectrum of fruit flavours. Ripe berries, chocolate and spice abound on the nose and palate, underpinned by well-structured tannins and a long, rich finish. This is a wine to enjoy now though it will develop well for another three to five years.
