2019 PINOT NOIR

Sonoma County

I was born in Colombia and trained as a wine-maker in France. From living in these diverse geographies, I am inspired to produce wines as a unique expression of place. Now, seduced by the exuberance and beauty of Sonoma County, California, I craft my Alma de Cattleya wines to speak of the uniqueness of each varietal — from this land to your table.

This Pinot Noir is a true expression of the varietal grown in the coolest areas of Sonoma County with complex aromas of raspberries, spiced cherries, wild strawberries and subtle vanilla bean notes. On the palate the wine has great acidity with a smooth texture and long finish. Enjoy for everyday occasions.
