GLENROTHES 1993 SINGLE MALT SCOTCH WHISKY

The Glenrothes distillery was founded in the Speyside town of Rothes, in 1878 by James Stuart and Co. The distillery almost came to a terrible end, when it was destroyed by fire in 1922. It was rebuilt and the stills were increased from 4 to 10 in 1963. Alexander Murray brings you this rare bottling of Glenrothes distilled in 1993, matured for 18 years in oak casks.

It is golden in color, very spicy with hints of vanilla on the nose. A malt driven flavor, with a good long finish. A perfect dram for all occasions.
