TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

Winter: dark, deep, rich and filled with the summer that made it possible. This wine is a blend of vineyards from the Texas High Plains. The full tannin development holding dark fruit and rich structure is a fine example of what Texas wine can bring to your table. Aged in French and American oak for 20 months, this wine displays subtle notes of red fruit, tobacco and rose petals followed by dark red fruit and tannin on the palate.

Label: This painting of a winter gulf coastal scene was painted by our late friend and artist Tony Bell.

We hope you will enjoy our hand-crafted wines with good food and in moderation.

To life, to love and to friendship.
