TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

Our relationship with the land and honey bees inspired and gave birth to this vodka. The soul of a beekeeper is filled with the rhythms that flow through the seasons, reflecting the changes in the flowers, rains, sun, and all the forces that are part of this beautiful mystery. Barr Hill Vodka is crafted from honey at our micro-distillery on the banks of the Lamoille River in Caledonia County of the Northeast Kingdom of Vermont. Honey is cold fermented for several weeks and then carefully distilled in our custom stills. The spirit which emerges reflects the essence of the soil and flowers visited by the bees.
