The SUN AND the MOON

When God finished creating the world, he decided to give it a final touch ... Light!
It was then that he placed a special power upon the sun and the moon, an illumination that nothing else could ever have.

When these two stars met for the first time, it began this great love story and they decided to share their love with the universe. But God had an assignment, a function for each one, and for that reason they would have to live apart.

To the Sun, the "Astro King" the assignment was to illuminate the day, giving warmth to all the humans, and to the Moon, the "Queen of the night" the assignment was to illuminate the dark nights, be an asylum for lovers, and the leading character for endless, immeasurable poetry.

Upon knowing that they would have to live apart, both entered into a state of depression, and sadness. They thought that they would never meet again, and it would be impossible to live their truth.

The Moon, the Queen of the night, despite her brightness felt lonely without someone beside her.
Being the Astro King, the Sun had gained all of the sky and the heavens by his side, but this could not erase the emptiness that was left by the moon living apart.
Distraught for his beloved, the Sun decided to go to God and ask for help. He asked God to give the moon companionship so she wouldn't feel the loneliness.
God in all his immense goodness gave her the Stars in the sky, and decided to create the cycles of the Moon, to give them both the opportunity to see each other again, and live their truth.

Today the Sun and the Moon live waiting for an instant, a beautiful and unique moment that was designed and created especially for them to be together again.
From now on, when you look up at the sky and see the Sun and Moon at the same time, you will know that any love is possible.
