Prairie Mission Red Texas High Plains

The label name "Prairie Mission Red" originally started with Teysha Cellars when the winery was built in 1988. The dream of Teysha Cellars was to establish a well-known brand by selling premium Texas wine from multiple varietals of local grapes.

In 1992, Teysha Cellars became Caprock Winery. Today, we are known as English Newsom Cellars and we want to celebrate our roots with you.

English Newsom Cellars is proud to fulfill the dream that started with Teysha Cellars many years ago. We carry on the original plan by producing premium wine with 100% Texas grapes. Prairie Mission Red is red blend of 50% Merlot and 50% Cabernet from our vineyards in Hockley County.
