KEN WRIGHT CELLARS

2012 PINOT NOIR

Source is everything. This site is the culmination of a long held dream by Art and Susan Crum. Situated on a due west slope in the Eastern foothills of the Yamhill-Carlton AVA, this small seven-acre vineyard is planted only to Pinot noir clones 777, 667 and Wadenswil.

It is named after the Western Tanager, a brilliantly colored bird which is native to the area.

The label artwork, by David Berkvam, shows a portrait of Lani' Koa (Hawaiian for sky warrior) a juvenile Kestrel captured in the wild by Susan as part of her falconry training. Susan is becoming part of the effort by Ken Wright Cellars to achieve control of fruit-eating migratory birds through natural methods.
