TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

CUVEÉ ROUGE

RED WINE

Bergerac, France

ALC. 14.9% BY VOL.

Texas' history with France is undeniable. The French nobleman La Salle tried to colonize our Gulf Coast in the 17th century, and over 100 years ago horticulturist T.V. Munson introduced the French to hardy Texas rootstock, thus saving their vineyards from disease. It could be said that many of the finest French wines have their "roots" in Texas. Vinified in France, cellared, and bottled in Texas, this is an old world premium red blend. The French would raise a glass and say "Sante!", but here in Texas it's "Cheers Ya'll!"
