Unang is a magnificent 9th century domaine managed by James and Joanna King. They carefully farm 44 acres of vines at 1,000 feet above sea level in the heart of the Ventoux appellation—a mountain region shielded from the heat of the Rhône Valley by Mt. Ventoux, a World Heritage Site. Unang is known for superb, mineral-rich red wines, but luckily for us all it also makes a wee bit of this toothsome dry rosé from Cinsault (40%), Grenache (30%), and Syrah (30%).
