Château Lagarosse is located in the heart of an historical landscape where the Romans first grew vines in Bordeaux, hence the appellation name "Premières Côtes de Bordeaux". Lagarosse's vineyards cover the sunniest slopes of the area. "Les Comtes" is the First wine of Château Lagarosse. It is aged up to 18 months in new in oak barrels. It is very well structured, with ripe tannins and elegant body that pleasantly line the palate. This wine will perfectly complement red grilled meat, and will be superb with farm cheese such as "Pont-l'Eveque", from Normandy.
