SWEET SPARKLING WINE

The mysteries and legends of Moscato know no boundaries. Some say that this noble grape was cultivated in the Greek city Moskata, outside of Athens. Some say crusaders brought them back from the holy land, as blessings to Italy. It is considered to be the oldest domesticated grape.

Its history is ancient: first recorded notes of Moscato date back to 1300, Piedmont, in Northern Italy. Fresh flavors of citrus, honey peach, sage, and orange blossoms, an elegant golden, sweet aromatic wine, as if divine grapes were harvested by the hands of the angels.
