The Nada family—mother, father, son and daughter—farm 15 acres of vines in the pastoral Langhe hills of northwest Italy and make an array of artisan wines. Their most famous is Barbaresco, but not to be overlooked is this exceptional Nebbiolo (100%) rosé. The grape is acclaimed for distinctive rosé, particularly when harvested early by hand to preserve acidity, aromatics, and lithesome definition. Each year the Nadas make a mere 200 cases of this delicious wine.
