ARTZ VINEYARD

IN 1980, one hundred years after our family began farming in Eastern Washington, we planted the old blocks of Seven Hills Vineyard. Along with my father, Vicky and I founded Seven Hills Winery in 1988. From that first vintage, my goal has been to craft intensely structured, balanced wines that express their vineyard origin.

It's been a pleasure to have worked with Fred Artz for over two decades. At Artz Vineyard, Fred grew fruit of great character and intensity, and we've made his Cabernet Sauvignon into exceedingly ageable wine of muscular personality. Look for Red Mountain dustiness and ripe fruit in the nose, and ample, lengthy structure and black fruits by mouth.
