MUIRWOOD

UNOAKED CHARDONNAY

ARROYO SECO, MONTEREY | 2017

We pioneered grape growing in Monterey County back in the 1970's, recognizing that the unique combination of soil, climate and growing conditions in the Arroyo Seco appellation would produce exceptional grapes. Inspired by John Muir's work to preserve the wilderness, we take a long term perspective in caring for our vineyards. This care translates into attention to detail at every step of the grape growing and winemaking process, including cold fermentation in stainless steel to preserve crispness while accentuating the mango and guava fruit flavors, for a Chardonnay with elegance and complexity.
