MĀKMĒL, "Temple of God" deriving from ancient Phoenician & Aramaic languages, the highest mountains in Lebanon & the Mediterranean Levant. Adorned with snow practically year-round, these majestic mountains form the largest reservoir for the Levant's purest water, irrigating the famous "Cedars of God" & the vineyards of the Deir El Ahmar region on either side. Exceptional terroir with high altitude vineyards basking in over 300 days of sun. This wine embodies the character of the MĀKMĒL mountains & that of the strong, resilient people living on its slopes.

Made with the finest handpicked grapes, an exceptional blend of noble varietals: 40% Arinarnoa, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Tempranillo. Purple with violet fringe, pleasant to drink, fresh nose of red berries, cherries, ripe plums, smooth tannins, subtle finish & notes of delicate Mediterranean spices. Pair with grilled meat, tomato-based pasta dishes, full-bodied cheeses. Serve at room temperature to enjoy this silky red in its full harmony.
