TOLLOY PINOT NOIR

VIGNETI DELLE DOLOMITI
INDICAZIONE GEOGRAFICA TIPICA

Johann Tolloy began serving wine to his customers in Südtirol in the 18th Century. His popular Inn was frequented by travelers along the Adige River Valley, who would find rest and excellent wine in the village of Salurn.

Today this place is home to opulently fruity Pinot Noir vines in this mountainous region. The wine offers a bouquet of ripe wild cherries, strawberries and black currants. Light balsamic and vanilla notes come from the aging in wood.
