PRESIDIO RED WINE

TEXAS

ALC. 14.2% BY VOL

Founded in 1721 on the ruins of the French Fort Saint Louis, the Presidio at Goliad was moved to the Guadalupe River and then the San Antonio River during the 18th century. As the only Spanish fortress on the Gulf Coast, and being located at the crossroads of several trade and military routes, the Presidio became one of the most significant areas in Spanish Texas.

GO TEXAN.

The "Texas" State name comes from the Caddo Indian word "Teysha" meaning "Friend." Pick up a bottle or two to share, because here at Teysha Vineyard, we believe the best wines are the ones we drink with friends.
