TINPOT HUT

2014 MARLBOROUGH PINOT NOIR

Inspired by the farming origins of her own Home Block vineyard, winemaker Fiona Turner named her range of wines after the historic "Tinpot Hut"; a Marlborough landmark frequented by local high country sheep farmers.

"Our Pinot Noir is produced from grapes grown on my own vineyard in Blind River along with selected fruit from the Wairau Valley. Aromatics of ripe cherry and plum shine through to the palate and are complemented by subtle spicy notes. The finish is silky and lingering."
