Viña Ocucaje was founded in 1898 in an excellent viticultural zone dating back to the 16th century. Our Wine cellar, located in this privileged region surrounded by smooth hills 336 Km south of Lima, takes its name from the aymara word "OCUKAJE" meaning "BETWEEN HILLS".

Pisco is distilled from hot Quebranta grape must and originally produced in Perú during the beginning of the 17th Century.
