CALINA®

sauvignon blanc

RESERVA • VALLE CENTRAL, CHILE

Stretching 2,900 miles from north to south, Chile offers some of the most diverse landscape on the earth. Its climate is temperature, chilled by the daily breezes from the cold Pacific Ocean to the west and towering Andes Mountains to the east. Sauvignon Blanc is a brilliant wine of a pale color with green tones. It is bottled young in order to maintain it fruity and light. It is delightful as an aperitif and perfect with salads, fish and seafood. Serve chilled.
