DOÑA MARTINA CHARDONNAY SANTA MARIA VALLEY

A reflection of the rugged location of our vineyard, this Chardonnay is an expression of its place: lean and crisp with resilient character.

SOIL: PLEASANTON SANDY LOAM

CLONE: WENTE, CLONE 72 - OWN ROOT

75% STAINLESS STEEL, 20% NEW & 5% USED FRENCH OAK
CASES PRODUCED: 245

Following his grandfather's arrival to California in 1781, Juan Pacifico Ontiveros took ownership of the Rancho Tepesquet land grant at the crossing of the Sisquoc and Cuyama Rivers. Here, with his wife Martina, he built a life and a family, yet over the next several generations, the land was sold off in pieces. Now, our story continues at Rancho Viñedo Vineyard, part of the original Ranchos de Ontiveros land, and brings our family's legacy full circle — back to where it began.

Endless thanks to Mr. Edwin "Robin" Woods & Mrs. Caroline Woods for this opportunity. I am truly grateful.
