Primrose

Texas Rosé Wine
Texas High Plains
2019

Made from Primitivo grapes, the signature varietal at our Cerro Santo estate vineyard, our lovely 2019 "Primrose" rosé wine captures the color of a West Texas sunset, and is a perfect example of the harmonious blend of climate and craft. A refreshing dry wine with amazing tropical aromas of banana and mango followed by raspberry, pineapple and grapefruit on the palette, our Primrose pairs well with any fresh, light meal, but is also a perfect standalone accompaniment to a beautiful sunset.

At Adelphos Cellars:

We believe wine is all about family. The word "adelphos" translates to "brethren" from the ancient Greek. The certainty that sharing an inspiring bottle of great wine brings us together as brothers and sisters, mothers and daughters, fathers and sons, is what drives our passion for making this wine. We invite you to share the fruits of our labor, in the hope that enjoying this bottle with those you love will bind us all closer together as one family.

Welcome to ours.
