The Barrels brand brings wonderful memories to Felipe Gimenez, founder of the Reserva de la Tierra winery. Felipe was born surrounded by vineyards and barrels, in particular brandy barrels, which his father used to make wine with. Felipe inherited the first 5 barrels that his father left him when he passed away, and since then, his mission has been to take his father's passion and efforts to the next level. Over the years, Felipe has always wanted to pay tribute to his father and what better way to honor a father who loved viticulture than by creating excellent wine?
