Thirteen Years

DRY RED TEXAS MUSCADINE WINE

YEAR 2018 ALC/VOL 12%

THIRTEEN YEARS

The disputed No Man's Land of western Louisiana beckoned to outlaws and pioneers alike. While the Free State of Sabine dissolved in 1819 after only thirteen years, its haunting reputation lingers, much like the richness of this dry, oak-aged wine.

GET YOUR Swagger ON

The moss-draped swamps of the Texas and Louisiana border sheltered the 40-mile stretch of No Man's Land known as the Free State of Sabine. Fleeing justice, the lawless and seditious haunted these snake-infested backwaters and bayous. Within the haven of the Devil's Playground, treasures were buried, legends were forged, and the independence of the Texas nation born. Our extraordinary wines reflect the adventurous mythos of such saints and sinners. Uncork a bottle to create your own legend.

Welcome to Free State.
