ADELSHEIM

Auxerrois

2006 Willamette Valley

ALC. 13.2% BY VOL.

When two clones of Auxerrois (oak-sair-wah) arrived in Oregon from Alsace in 1977, we had barely heard of the variety. It turns out that Auxerrois, like Chardonnay, is a medieval cross between the noble Pinot noir grape of Burgundy and an ignoble variety, Gouais blanc. Our Auxerrois comes from three acres planted on a northeast slope at our Ribbon Springs Vineyard. From this site, the wine takes on aromas of pear and anise, even as it remains crisp and refreshing.
