CACHAPOAL ANDES,
CHILE- 2011

Cabernet Franc (3%) • Petite Syrah (3%) • Petit Verdot (2%)

The dream of producing wines on Chilean soils led the Correa Albano brothers, of Spanish origin, to establish Viña San Pedro in 1865. Today, we pay tribute to Viña San Pedro's 150 years of history, a pride we carry across three centuries, maintaining the same strength, joy and passion for wine. Better every year: a heritage and desire that unites us.

This bottle is born from the exploration of one of Chile's best terroirs, nestled in the foothills of the Andes Mountains, in the Cachapoal Andes Valley. The alluvial and colluvial soils found there help to create this intensely rich and elegant wine, which will age beautifully.
