2001 DOMUS AUREA CABERNET SAUVIGNON UPPER MAIPO VALLEY

Domus Aurea ("House of Gold") is a single-vineyard wine made from old vines in the renowned Clos Quebrada de Macul Vineyard. Situated in a hillside microclimate, this family-owned vineyard overlooks Macul, Chile's oldest wine-producing region.

Rigorous vineyard management, combined with a particularly dry summer, resulted in extremely low yields. We hand harvested from March 21 to April 22 under optimum conditions, selecting only the highest quality fruit of each successive picking.

This Cabernet Sauvignon displays exceptional purity of fruit and a complexity true to its unique terroir. Domus Aurea is unfiltered and can be expected to develop a natural sediment as it benefits from further age in the bottle.
