Sam Maverick's Spirit

"I have a desire to reside in this particular spot…a solitary escapee from the Alamo massacre having been sent by those unfortunate men" -Sam Maverick, 1847

Relating the hallowed place he built his Homestead, steps from The Alamo. He wanted to always be close to the 187 brave souls who died. The martyrs elected him to live and to represent them for Texas' freedom.

On this land he made his life and legend. Sam and wife Mary raised their family on this spot and became bastions for generosity, integrity and grit.

Located on our original Maverick Family Homestead, Sam Maverick Spirits handcrafts, distills and ages the family recipe into a fine spirit steeped with history and worthy of the name. Dedicated to the Maverick for whom all other mavericks are named.
