BOURBON BARREL

AGED 3 MONTHS

In the early 1920s, Mickey "Big Six" Doyle was the fastest outlaw runner in all of Bourbon County Kentucky. The sound of his souped-up six cylinder engine ripped through the sober night air. The hooligans knew Doyle would be making deliveries to all the underground hot spots and speakeasies, but the suits could never catch up thanks to Big Six and his rip-roaring shennigans.
