CONTRABAND ROAD

Forbidden to trade along The King's Highway, the Contraband Road provided a means for pirates and privateers in the Free State to barter their bounty. With smoky oak-aged notes, this wine remains coveted by buccaneer and businessman alike.

GET YOUR Swagger ON

The moss-draped swamps of the Texas and Louisiana border sheltered the 40-mile stretch of No Man's Land known as the Free State of Sabine. Fleeing justice, the lawless and seditious haunted these snake-infested backwaters and bayous. Within the haven of the Devil's Playground, treasures were buried, legends were forged, and the independence of the Texas nation born. Our extraordinary wines reflect the adventurous mythos of such saints and sinners. Uncork a bottle to create your own legend.

Welcome to Free State.
