Francis Ford Coppola
THE WITCH of AGNESI

*Maria Gaetana Agnesi was a brilliant 18th century mathematician, philosopher, and theologian. She was a known prodigy and fluent in seven languages by her eleventh birthday. The first woman to write a mathematics handbook, she was also the first female mathematics professor at a university. Her work Institutioni Analitiche discussed a curve that has since come to be known as The Witch of Agnesi in her honor.*

*Agnesi Brandy is a small batch American Brandy crafted with pure Napa Valley spring water from our family's estate in Ruthsford and aged in our wine barrels. Agnesi Brandy brings together our family's winemaking heritage and love of cocktails. We encourage our guests to drink it like we do, in our signature cocktail The Witch of Agnesi, in honor of Maria Gaetana Agnesi and brilliant women everywhere.*
