This gin is a celebration of our special connection to the land. We use grain spirits as a canvas to showcase juniper berry and raw northern honey, which imparts a unique floral quality that varies with season and blossom. Our distillery, on the banks of the Lamoille River in the Northeast Kingdom, is rooted in the agriculture of Vermont. Hardwick, Caledonia County, is a community inspired by farms where the production of milk, cheese, timber, vegetables, grains, honey, seeds, and herbs are part of our lives and help define our place.
