FIX COMPLETE SET OF LABELS BELOW (See General Instructions 4, 6 and 7)

Preceding World War II, the Olympic Transport Company established an airbase at the foothills of the Rattlesnake Mountains. The airbase was sold to the Miller Family and for four generations they have farmed the surrounding area. The first wine grapes were planted at 'Airfield' prior to 1970, and today we are proud to bring you wines made from our best vineyards.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES: Our Reserve Syrah was given the utmost care in the vineyard to coax out the vines best. Ink black in color, this wine has dark fruit and floral notes swirling around amidst smokey flavors from being aged in new Hungarian oak barrels for nine months. It pairs well with sausage, barbequed ribs, peppered steaks, and highly fragrant cheese. Enjoy!
