Castle Rock

Our Castle Rock Sauvignon Blanc is produced from grapes grown in Northern California's Lake County, which has emerged since the 1960s as one of the most prestigious growing regions. Here, the soil types and microclimate around Clear Lake provide ideal growing conditions for Sauvignon Blanc grapes.

This elegant, medium-bodied wine is crisp and refreshing, with hints of citrus, apple, honey and melon flavors all blending into a smooth, silky, harmonious finish. It makes an ideal accompaniment for seafood, chicken, salads and vegetarian dishes.
