MĀKMĒL, "Temple of God" deriving from ancient Phoenician & Aramaic languages, the highest mountains in Lebanon & the Mediterranean Levant. Adorned with snow practically year-round, these majestic mountains form the largest reservoir for the Levant's purest water, irrigating the famous "Cedars of God" & the vineyards of the Deir El Ahmar region on either side. Exceptional terroir with high altitude vineyards basking in over 300 days of sun. This wine embodies the character of the MĀKMĒL mountains & that of the strong, resilient people living on its slopes.

Made with the finest handpicked grapes, a unique rosé from 100% Arinarnoa. Crisp, fresh, with a perfect balanced acidity, reminding of summer afternoons by a waterfall & fading sun. Fresh notes of exotic fruits & roses, with a long finish. Pair with appetizers, starters or seafood. Serve at around 8°C to enjoy this smooth salmony rosé in its full harmony.
