TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

My father's name was Joseph, as is mine, but his friends just called him
JOSH

Pacific Ocean fog and mild coastal air influence the North Coast's long, sunny warm days and cool evenings to create near perfect growing conditions for Cabernet Sauvignon. This North Coast Cabernet Sauvignon bursts with plum and blackberry flavors, layered with smoky vanilla wood, roasted almonds and hazelnuts, finishing long with fine, firm tannins. A wine that is bold and expressive but unassuming and approachable. It's funny how these characteristics seem to remind me of someone that I knew. It's a wine I made for my family, my friends, and a man I called Dad.
