47 is a highly cotient, supersingular, prime number, the atomic number of silver, and the international dialing code for Norway! At the college I attended, the 47 Society shares the mysterious knowledge that 47 occurs with noticeably higher frequency than any other natural number. At a yearly summer gathering of college friends, held on the Sonoma coast, I took this table wine and christened it "47 Friends". Whether there were 47 friends present or we had 47 bottles of wine, no one can quite remember. Grab your 47 friends - and enjoy!
