DISCOVER WASHINGTON

2010 COLUMBIA VALLEY
RIESLING

1805 marks the year Lewis and Clark discovered Washington's Columbia River Valley. Wine grapes were soon planted in the region and have been cultivated ever since by a hardy band of grape growers. 1805 Riesling offers the lush, vibrant fruit for which Washington wine is renowned. Its fragrant white jasmine aromas, succulent peach, apricot and nectarine flavors, and refreshing acidity make it a wonderful match with seafood and spicy Asian cuisines.
