RESERVE CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Napa Valley

The story of this wine begins in the 1920's when our great-grandfather Louis Bovet made wine with his family in their home. Called Chateau Bovet, the wine came from vineyards hand-tended on their land. With three generations living on an estate much like Round Pond, Louis' son, Eric, and later his daughter Jannine, inherited a great love of wine, gardening, and caring for the land.

Remarkably, 100 years later, our family has returned to its roots with Round Pond Estate. With three generations living on the estate at Round Pond, we continue to pursue the legacy that Louis started, nurturing our passion for winemaking and the stewardship of our land.

Today, by using the lone remaining symbol of Louis' work - an old wooden stamp carved with his wine label, the Bovet Reserve Collection honors family and our shared connection with the past.
