2012

TEXAS HIGH PLAINS CABERNET FRANC RESERVE

ALCOHOL 14.3% BY VOLUME

This single varietal Cabernet Franc was harvested from the Bingham Family Vineyard on the Texas High Plains. The wine was aged 1 year in new American oak barrels and has an unusual delicacy and rich aromatic profile suggesting floral notes and ripe raspberries.

Label: The old Friendly Tavern on the drag in Austin, 1964. This woodblock print of the now defunct Friendly Tavern in Austin, Texas, was executed by the late Artist Tony Bell in 1970. The scene depicts the proprietor, Curly, and several patrons. It was a familiar haunt of Bunny and Richard Becker and friends in the 1960's before real life began.

Please plan to visit our winery on your next trip to the beautiful Texas Hill Country.

We hope you will enjoy our hand-crafted wines with good food and in moderation. To life, to love and to friendship.
