CHAMBERS Rosewood Vineyards Rutherglen Muscat

Six generations of the Chambers winemaking family have survived here from the 1860's, as have some of the vines which date back to the beginning of the last century.

From these aged vines comes Chambers Rutherglen Muscat regarded by many throughout the world as the benchmark for this style. Picked when the berries are fully ripe and mostly shriveled, the fresh aromatic bouquet and flavor can be enjoyed as an aperitif, a between dinner drink or with desserts. Rich puddings and fruit flans are a particularly enjoyable combination.

Once opened this wine will not deteriorate, however, always re-cork the bottle and then it can be enjoyed over many months.
