COMMANDERIE DES HOSPITALIERS 2018

I.G.P. PAYS CATHARE

Mise en bouteille au Domaine
11590 Ouveillan - France

70% GRENACHE, 25% SYRAH & 5% MOURVEDRE

The Commanderie des Hospitaliers was founded in 1192 and is in the small appellation of IGP Pays Cathare, close to the city of Narbonne. This unique appellation alludes to the original owners, members of the Cathar gnostic movement which flourished in the 12th century in southern France. The estate was also owned by the family of the illustrious Admiral de Suffren, who fought alongside Lafayette in the American Revolution. The family of the present owners acquired the estate in 1962. The 25 acres of vineyards are planted on limestone-gravel soil. Sustainable agriculture. Manual harvest. Fermentation in cement tanks. Aged 12 months in demi-muids (600-liter oak barrels). Limited production of 1,900 cases. This seductive and elegant wine, with rich raspberry and sandalwood flavors, is delicious with steaks, pork loin, lamb chops, turkey and cheese.
