TEXAS GROWN AND MALTED

Balcones has always pushed forward into uncharted territory, and this time the territory is our home state of Texas. Balcones High Plains Texas Single Malt is made entirely from barley grown and malted in Texas. Texas grown barley is a recent development given our hot and arid climate, and we are excited to share this tribute to this state and the people that grow, malt, ferment, distill and blend here. Welcome to Texas and the whisky that calls it home.
