TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

Alasia is a range of premium wines from Araldica drawn from its vineyards in the hills of south Piedmont in north-western Italy. They are made using modern winemaking techniques and are approachable wines with intensity of fruit, but retain the classic Italian character governed by the terroir.

This Arneis is straw coloured, and has aromas of ripe stone fruits nuances of vanillin. It is rich, and has flavours of peaches and hints of apricots with subtle oak adding complexity. Enjoy this with subtly flavoured meals such as poultry and fish during the next three years.
