100% DESTILADO DE AGAVE

This 101-liter batch (90 bottles released exclusively to Estereo) was produced by maestro Mezcalero Alberto Martinez and his son-in-law Reynaldo. Alberto and Reynaldo harvested approximately 150 wild Tobalá (A. Potatorum) agaves in the mountains of Santa Catarina Albarradas, Oaxaca at approximately 7,500 feet above sea level. They roasted the Tobalá hearts in an underground conical oven with encino oak for three days, and then hand-mashed the cooked agave with wooden mallets, mixed it with spring water and fermented the agave in underground stone tanks with "encino de agua" bark for four days. The resulting "tepache" and mash were then double-distilled in small clay pots at Alberto's palenque, "La Escondida." August 2018.

Cinco Sentidos ("Five Senses") originated as the house agave spirit in Oaxaca's acclaimed restaurant, "El Destilado." This small batch was produced and bottled exclusively for the fine patrons of Chicago's "Estereo" and Oaxaca's "El Destilado".
