2019 Zinfandel, Paso Robles, bottled 12/20
Drenching winter storms brought the vines much needed water. Cold spring weather delayed bud-break and bloom. Fortunately, a warm summer ripened the grapes for an early September harvest. Each vineyard parcel fermented in separate tanks for an average of six days. Once pressed, the finished lots were tasted. The most appealing, fruit-forward wines were assembled. This delicious vintage can be enjoyed now and over the next five to seven years. EB (9/20)
