LA COLECCIÓN MIXTECA

Cinco Sentidos

100% Destilado de Agave

This 56-liter batch (bottles) was distilled by maestro mezcalero Anatolio Ramirez in the town of San Jose Rio Minas. Anatolio and his son Emmanuel harvested cultivated agave Mexicanito (the local name for A. Rhodacantha) from the region, at approximately 4,800 feet above sea level. Anatolio roasted the agave with tepehuaje and encino firewood in an underground conical pit oven for four days. After cooking, Anatolio mashed the agave by hand with a wooden mallet in a canoa made from a dug-out tree trunk. The mash was allowed to ferment naturally with spring water for nine days. The fermented mash and tepache were then distilled twice in a hybrid stainless-steel and copper pot still. July 2018.

"La Colección Mixteca" is a curated selection of small-batch agave spirits crafted in the rustic distilleries of the mountainous Mixteca region of Oaxaca and Puebla. Each bottling explores the maestro mezcalero's interpretation of subjecting agave endemic to the region to peculiar production methods and styles that have largely fallen out of favor in modern times. A significant portion of sales from this collection will be used for palenque improvement projects. Series 2019.
