story behind the wine

The Uprising, a new wine aged for 30 days in rum barrels, pays homage to Australia's "Rum Rebellion" of 1808. Due to the Government's hindering of the rum trade, the rebellion was the only time a group of soldiers and citizens banded together to overthrow the Government. A portion of this hand-crafted wine has thus been aged for 30 days in rum barrels and is dark with jammy flavours and a smokey finish.
