Al dente!

PERFECT TO THE POINT

PINOT GRIGIO

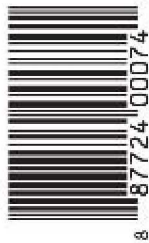

DELLE VENEZIE
INDICAZIONE GEOGRAFICA TIPICA
WHITE WINE

A direct translation of "Al dente" means "to the tooth". This Italian cooking expression is used to describe the desired consistency of pasta which has been cooked to be firm but not too hard, just perfectly cooked to the right point - perfect! The Italians are well-known for being relaxed and easy-going, but they take both their pasta-making and their wine-making very seriously, and so the Al dente wines have been mastered in true Italian style - perfectly to the point. The Pinot Grigio varietal is almost as popular in Italy as pasta itself - this wine is crisp, aromatic and refreshing, to be enjoyed before dinner or together with light pasta dishes or salads.
